

Q Does that deed describe the land he bought from Mr. Thomas and owned at the time of his death?

A Yes, it does.

Q Mr. Deater, what other property did he own?

A Well, he owned a lot over there on Madison Street and then he owned these two houses on South Street.

Q Let's take the Madison Street property. Would you look at Exhibit No. 3 and tell the Court whether they describe the lot on Madison Street?

A Yes, that describes it.

Q From those lots on Madison Street one was sold, is that right?

A Yes, I bought the house and my sister bought a lot off of there.

Q Would you look at this deed marked Exhibit 4 from John Deter to Lillie M. Deter, and tell the Court whether that describes what he sold from this piece?

A Yes, that is the lot he sold off that piece of property.

Q Would you look at Exhibit 5, being deed from John Deter to Harry Deter and tell the Court whether or not that describes the parcel that came off the Madison Street lot and sold to you?

A Yes, sir, that is the deed.

Q What other property did he own, Mr. Deater?

A He owned two properties on West South Street. He built the one and bought the one. That's been years ago.

Q Do you know from whom he bought the property?

A Conrad Ruland and wife.

Q Will you look at Exhibit 1, being the deed from Conrad Ruland and wife, dated Janury 7, 1889, and tell the Court whether that describes the property?

A Yes, sir, that is the deed.

Q Those deeds that have been identified, Mr. Deater, is that
